

Tad joins FMSC Board, January 2007

Tad Weiss named to Board of Feed My Starving Children

Tad joined the Board of Directors for Feed My Starving Children, a non-profit charitable organization based in Brooklyn Park, MN. With God's help, FMSC strives to eliminate starvation in children throughout the world. In 2007, FMSC will package and ship 40 million meals around the world. FMSC's meals are highly nutritious and are designed to feed the world's hungriest children. Food ingredients are purchased with donations from individuals, churches, foundations, and businesses, and the meals will be packed by over 170,000 volunteers this year. You can learn more about Feed My Starving Children by visiting their website at www.fmsc.org.